

Jonathan P. Lewis-Evans
Group Managing Director
The Location Company

Mr. Lewis-Evans is the company's technical services and product development visionary as well as the lynchpin of the company's rapidly expanding global network of technology providers and other strategic partners. Mr. Lewis-Evans was born in England and graduated from Heriot-Watt University Business School in Edinburgh. He then worked in accountancy for KPMG in London before moving to Asia. In Hong Kong he moved from working in financial markets to an entrepreneurial career, which led to an offer to acquire the renowned LoJack stolen vehicle recovery service in Hong Kong, which he and his partners built into a springboard for market leadership in LBS in Hong Kong and East Asia.